Note continued.

With reference to the Councillors' queries, it is respectfully submitted that the villages of Samanahalli and Bidarakka in the Ho Ĉ- Narsipur Taluk and ~~of~~ the lands in the Karnimanti and Agrahar villages near Paschimavahini had been endowed by Bangalê Chowdiah for the charities established by him. The first named 2 villages in the Hole Narsipur Taluk are described in the Quit-Rent Register herewith submitted, as "personal, now devadaya and dharmadaya". The lands in the Karnimanti and Agrahar villages are Kandayem lands, and continue as private endowments. When the mismanagement of Chowdiah's charities was brought to the notice of Govt., the Amildar attached the proûce of the last named lands, in 1903, and from that time upto now, the income is kept in amanat i.e in hands of the lessees.

are in the possession and enjoyment of Mr Subbarao.
These villages were about to be put up to auction in 1907, for the arrears of Jodi due thereon, viz Rs 714-3-7, but the sale has been ordered by Govt to be kept in abeyance pending final orders on the subject.
